1. INTRODUCTION

KUM FATT ENGINEERING ("KFE") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") conduct its business in a legal and ethical manner. The Group requires all employees (including full time, probationary, contract and temporary staff) ("Employees") and Directors of the Group to be committed to acting professionally and with integrity in their business dealings.

The Group will take reasonable and appropriate measures to ensure that its businesses do not participate in corrupt activities for its advantage or benefit. This Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy ("Policy") sets out the parameters to prevent the occurrence of bribery and corrupt practices in relation to the businesses of the Group. This Policy is supplemental to and shall be read in conjunction with the Code of Ethics and Conduct of KFE.

2. DEFINITION OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

Bribery is the offering, promising, giving, accepting, or soliciting of an advantage as an inducement for action which is illegal, unethical or a breach of trust. A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised, or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage and can take the form of gifts, loans, fees, rewards or other advantages.

Corruption is abuse of entrusted power for private gain.

3. OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Policy is to provide information and guidance to the Directors and Employees on standards of behavior to which they must adhere to and how to recognize as well as deal with bribery and corruption.

The Policy is not intended to be exhaustive, and there may be additional obligations that Directors and Employees are expected to adhere to or comply with when performing their duties. For all intents and purpose, the Directors and Employees shall always observe and ensure compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations to which they are bound to observe in the performance of their duties.

4. APPLICABILITY

The Policy is applicable to all Directors and Employees of the Group.

Each Employee has a duty to read and understand the Policy. Violation of any of the Policy's provisions may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

5. GUIDANCE ON COMMON FORMS OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

5.1 Gifts and Hospitality

This Policy does not prohibit normal business hospitality, so long as it is reasonable, appropriate, modest and bona fide corporate hospitality.

Some example of acceptable gifts and/or benefits are as follows:-

- (a) Token gifts offered in business situation or to all participants and attendees for example, work related seminars, conferences, trade and business events;
- (b) Gifts presented at work-related conferences, seminars and/or business events;
- (c) Gifts given in gratitude for hosting business events, conference and/or seminars;
- (d) Refreshments or meals during meetings or as participants of work-related conferences and/or seminars; and
- (e) Meals for business purposes.

As a general principle, the Directors and Employees should not accept or give a gift to a third party if it is made with the intention of influencing the third party to obtain or retain business, or in exchange for favours or benefits. In addition, lavish or unreasonable gifts or hospitality should not be accepted as such gifts or hospitality may be perceived or interpreted as attempts by the Directors or Employees to obtain or receive favourable business treatment for personal benefits.

The Directors and Employees should be mindful in giving or receiving gifts or hospitality as it could be perceived as a way of improperly influencing the decision making of the recipient. Hence, the intention behind the gifts or hospitality should always be considered.

5.2 Facilitation Payments To Officer of Public Body

Facilitation payments are unofficial payments or other advantages made to secure or expedite the performance of a routine by an officer of public body. Directors or Employees shall not promise or offer, or agree to give or offer, facilitation payments to an officer of any public body.

However, there could arise circumstances in which the Directors or Employees have no alternative but to make a facilitation payment in order to protect themselves from injury, loss of life or liberty. Any request for facilitation payment under such circumstances should be reported immediately to the superior of Head of Division/Department.

5.3 Third Parties and Agencies

All third parties, including agents, suppliers and joint venture partners should be made aware of this Policy and the arrangements with them shall be subject to clear contractual terms, including specific provisions requiring them to comply with minimum standards and procedures relating to bribery and corruption.

5.4 Political Contribution

Subject to any prevailing law that govern political contribution, the Group may make contribution to political parties or candidates. All political contributions require approval from the Head of Division or the MD. The records of all political contributions shall be kept by the Human Resource & Administration Department.

5.5 Charity Contribution

Charitable support and donations are acceptable (and indeed are encouraged), whether of in-kind services, knowledge, time, or direct financial contributions. However, Director and Employees must be careful to ensure the charitable contributions are not used as a scheme to conceal bribery. No donation can be offered or made without the prior approval of the Head of Division or MD. The records of all charitable contributions shall be kept by the Group.

6. RECORD-KEEPING

It is important that proper and complete records be maintained of all payments made to third parties in the usual course of business as these would serve as evidence that such payments were bona fide, and not linked to corrupt and/or unethical conduct. All accounts, invoices, documents and records relating to dealing with third parties, such as clients, suppliers and business contacts, should be prepared and maintained with accuracy and completeness.

Employees must declare all hospitality or gifts accepted or offered and submit details to the person in-charge who is assigned by the respective Division/Department for recording into a register which will be subject to internal audit review. Employees must also ensure that all expense claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred to third parties are approved by the Head of Division/Department and must be specifically recorded the reason for such expenditure.
